GECI International

Subsidiary Sky Aircraft SAS in receivership
October 4, 2012

SKY AIRCRAFT SAS IN RECEIVERSHIP

Sky Aircraft SAS was today placed into receivership by the Commercial Court of Briey (Meurthe-et-Moselle, France) with an observation period of six months.

The company and its management are committed to finding financial solutions that will ensure a future for the Skylander program and all the employees.

Trading of GECI International's stock has been suspended since June 7, 2012. The Commercial Court has agreed to the adjournment of the publication of the company's 2011-2012 fiscal year accounts until December 31, 2012.

ABOUT GECI INTERNATIONAL

For 30 years, GECI International has been established as a specialist in high technology engineering, with a preponderant presence in the world of aeronautics. Working in the four corners of the world, GECI International's 1,000 staff, engineers and researchers are constantly ready to meet today's and tomorrow's technological challenges.

GECI International combines excellence, passion to innovation to propose, on the one hand, via its GECI Engineering division an offer of expertise and global solutions in the fields of aeronautics, transport and infrastructures and, on the other, via its GECI Aviation a range of twin turboprop aircraft: the F406 and the Skylander SK-105.

The F406, produced by Reims Aviation Industries, is recognised by operators worldwide as an aircraft that is particularly suited to surveillance missions. The Skylander SK-105, produced by Sky Aircraft, stands out due to its exceptional performances, its ability to operate in extreme environments and its very competitive purchase and maintenance costs.
